

"Any sufficiently advanced technology is indistinguishable from magic."
- Arthur C. Clarke.

Divine Lights is a new series of art work inspired by the ethereal beauty of stained glass windows. For generations, artfully arranged colored glass has told timeless stories and inspired countless people. Now with video, Divine Lights take these images and feelings into a whole new dimension.

The original, individual, pieces of art may be purchased or rented to bring a space alive. The technology and techniques behind Divine Lights can be used in a wide variety of ways. From creating an immersive environment to bringing branded graphics to life.
